

Ensenada Cruisers – VHF Radio Procedure for Net Controller

Good morning Ensenada cruisers – Today is month, date, day & time and I'm your name, aboard your boat name and I'll be your Net Controller this morning.

First, Is there any Emergency or Priority Traffic – Please GO NOW

It's Check In Time. Please give your vessel name, your own name if you care to, and your location. Please Sign In NOW.

New Arrivals – Are there any new cruisers that just arrived and would like to introduce themselves and tell us where there from or where they are headed for?
Please GO NOW

Duck Breath, are you with us this morning? For you new comers, Duck Breath supplies our net with current weather condition and important headline information we deem necessary to keep us abreast of world events.

After the net is closed simply switch to channel 69 to catch Duck Breath

Departures – is anyone heading south, north or west? - GO NOW

Mail & Passengers - Is anyone heading back to the states that can take flat stamped mail and/or passengers?

Rides around town - any one venturing out today by car who could give anyone a ride or offer to pick up something in their travels?

Update from Cruisers - Has anyone heard or been in contact with fellow cruisers?

Swap & Trade - Here's an opportunity to to procure a bargain or perhaps you have found something in your bilge you think would be a bargain for someone else. Remember...we only swap or trade for coconuts, preferably green ones. You may also list your items, complete with any images you can supply, on the Ensenada Cruisers web site at www.ensnadacruisers.com

Announcements, Events, & Recommendations - Does anyone have any information on any coming event that would be of interest to everyone?

Cruisers Assistance - Have you been working on a project and now that you're half way through you've run into a road block. Well fellow Cruisers, here's your opportunity to call upon the expertise of fellow cruisers. Or, perhaps you need a particular part and need assistance to find it here in Ensenada. You can also check out the Cruisers website for specialized vendors and services which can be found under the button link "Repair Resources"

Trivia - Are there any topics anyone wishes to discuss or any information you think everyone would find useful or interesting?

Thank you for your participation. The Net is now closed and Duck Breath will now continue with detailed weather and news on channel 69.
